Digital Old-Time Radio SUMMER 2025

VERS. 1.32

Warren William appeared on Suspense in the 50th episode of the series which at that time was still being sustained by the CBS Network (without a sponsor). This was only the second year Suspense was on the air, and it had a noticeably different "feel" that the later perhaps even more "famous" episodes. This group of shows upgrade all previous versions -- some shows being so clean and well balanced that they sound like they were produced today rather than over 80 years ago!

Mr. Chameleon

Karl Swenson stars as a New York police detective who is a master of disguise. He assumes a new identity in each episode in order to catch a criminal. For decades, only two episodes were known to exist up until only a few years ago.

BOB'S MESSAGE

1980s: With Allen Rockford Award and Library of Congress copyright documents.

This year, the radio station that keeps me the most busy (WHFR-FM) is celebrating 40 years of existing on the FM band in the Detroit area (and streaming everywhere as well).

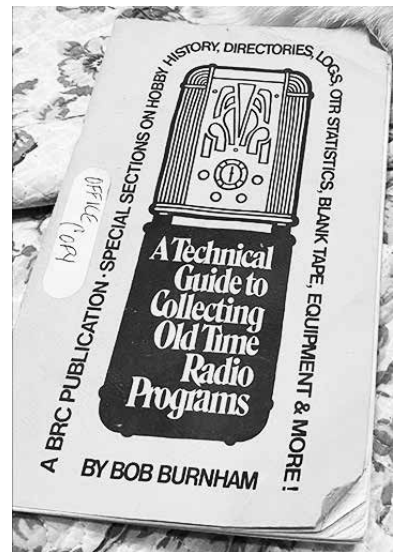

In 1985 when the station was launched, I had already written my Technical Guide to Collecting Old-Time Radio book (which sold out of 1,000 copies that year). In 1984, for my writing, The Friends of Old Time Radio had already presented me with The Allen Rockford Award at their annual convention in New Jersey. I was already well on my way to what would become my profession and career doing something that started out as a hobby.

By then, I had already known two of my oldest friends in old-time radio for 10 years! We will save the details for later, but their names can be found on the list of "thanks" on the back page.

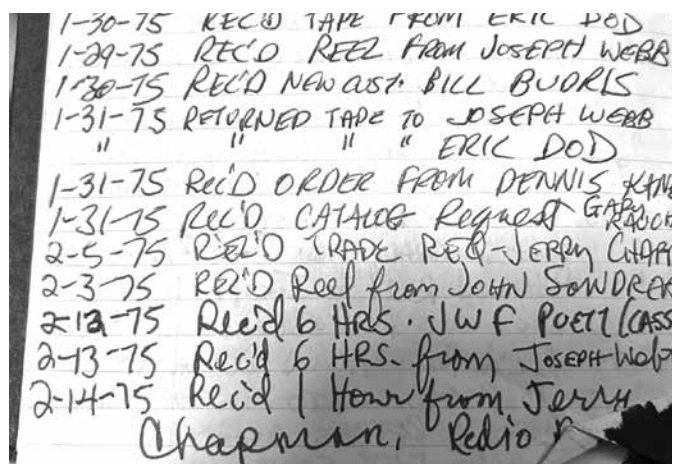

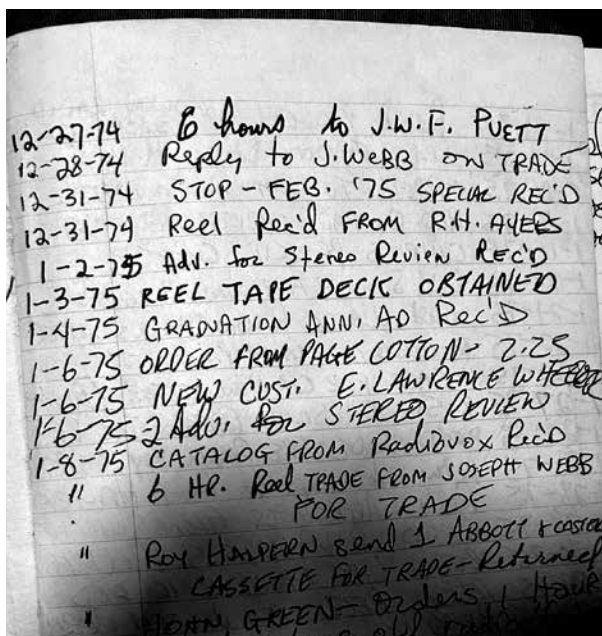

With this mailing we've offered much more of what has remained popular again, continuing with an emphasis on highest quality. Today, with the focus on digital formats (including standard CD), there is a level of consistent quality control that was never possible in the analog (cassette and reel to reel) days. My two books were efforts to make people more aware of what must be done to achieve some semblance of quality and preservation with the limitations we had at that time. I was inspired by the late Chuck Seeley (of Buffalo Old Time Radio Club fame) who had a similar publication but didn't offer as much depth. Like everything I try to do in life, I tried to take it to a new level and re-invent what I did for old-time radio. I'm not sure if I always succeed. With the writing and the follow-up edition in 1986, I may have made a dent.

Today, it's a different story. I have a background of audio processing with hardware tools, but we can do so much more with software now. The bottom line philosophy, however, has always been to LISTEN to what we're doing. As we age, however, our hearing does change. To compensate, we also have VISUAL tools now readily available with software. That includes things like waveform and spectrum displays and spectrum analyzers/viewers. We no longer have tapes heads, pinch rollers and capstans to clean and demagnetize. I do spend a lot of time looking at waveforms now and listening on high end headphones. Thanks for your support!

NOTES and THANKS...

We are an unusual business launched 50 years ago in the interest of making quality old-time radio affordable and readily available to everyone.

The emphasis has always been on quality. With that in mind, we employ advanced technical methods to maximize quality. Our CD product also features "CD Text," so you know exactly what's playing while it's playing.

Our tombstone style radio logo is based on a fully restored 1936 Atwater-Kent radio that has been in our office since the early 1980s. The logo itself is the work of the late Bob Burchett of Cincinnati, Ohio.

The programs we (and others) offer would not have been possible without the work and dedication of these individuals, just to name a few:

Bob Burchett, Jerry Chapman, Ted Davenport, Martin Grams, Jerry Haendiges, Jay Hickerson, Terry Salomonson, Dr. Joseph Webb

And special thanks to Collectables Expert, Tom Eurich of Dearborn, Michigan.
